ESPIONAGE - R

DATE: 10/20/54

Rerrep SA ROBERT F. ROYAL dated 8/27/54 at New York in this case in which there is a lead for the Los Angeles Office to interview DALE KUNTZ GALSTON, who is reported to be residing with her husband and children in Pasadena, California.

DALE KUNTZ GALSTON is the wife of ARTHUR W. GALSTON, a biologist at the California Institute of Technology, Pasadena, and they reside at 323 West Montana, Pasadena.

A review of the files of the Los Angeles Office reflect that DALE KUNTZ GALSTON has been active for several years in the Pasadena Peace Committee, which is an affiliate of the American Peace Crusade.

On October 1, 1954, SA HAROLD F. DODGE and SA BERLE M. GOODENOW endeavored to interview Mrs. GALSTON at her residence and as soon as Agents identified themselves Mrs. GALSTON stated "I'm sorry I have nothing to say to you". When it was brought to her attention that she was not aware of the purpose of the interview she stated "I have nothing to say that would interest you" and closed the door.

Inasmuch as there is no additional investigation in this matter pending in the Los Angeles Office this case is considered RUC'd.

with the girl for two weeks and never saw her again after that summer, although she recalls receiving a few social notes from her, and announcement of her marriage a few years later-about 1944 or 1945.

It was pointed out to Miss DLYN that Mrs. SARANT stated that she met ANITA DLYN through a PREMICE family of Brooklyn, New York, who Mrs. SARANT described as "old friends" of ANITA DLYN. Miss DLYN said that she was acquainted with the PREMICE family about 1941 but that she certainly would not describe them as "old friends." Miss DLYN stated she knew the father, LUCAS PREMICE and two daughters ADELE and JOSEPHINE. Miss DLYN added that she met the PREMICE family through a Haitian friend of hers. Miss DLYN said that if she met Mrs. SARANT through the PREMICE family, then the girl previously mentioned from West End, New Jersey cannot be Mrs. SARANT. Miss DLYN repeated that she does not recall meeting either ALFRED or LOUISE SARANT.

SUBJECT: ALFRED EPAMINONDAS SARANT, Was.

ESPIONAGE - R

DATE: 1/24/55

G.I.R.-9

It is noted that this investigation was opened in the Albany Office on June 26, 1950. As the Bureau is aware subject, ALFRED SARANT fled the United States in August, 1950 and his whereabouts since that time have never been determined although it is believed he is most probably somewhere in Europe.

Reference is made to the report of SA PETER F. MAXSON dated January 29, 1953 at Albany which set forth considerable investigation to be conducted with reference to names and addresses appearing in the address books of the subject located during the permissive search of the SARANT residence. All investigation with respect to these addresses has been conducted with the exception of investigation still outstanding in the New York Office. Report of SA WALTER P. GAVIN dated 11/30/54 at New York sets forth the remaining investigation to be conducted in this regard.

It is believed that this case should be brought to a logical conclusion in the near future, however, this case cannot be closed until the New York Office covers the above referred to outstanding leads. There is little remaining investigation in the Albany territory other than following the activities of LOUISE SARANT. This has been done to a great extent by periodic checks of toll call records and through mail covers with the Ithaca Post Office on her residence and also on the office of her stepfather, VICTOR K. D. ROSS. These mail covers have been diminishing in productivity and it is not believed that they should be continued. Accordingly no request is being made of the Bureau for authorization to continue these covers.

Border stops with Customs and the Immigration Service remain outstanding and it is suggested that these stops remain

GAVIN. Mr. RUTLEDGE advised that he became acquainted with Mr. and Mrs. VICTOR ROSS, the parents of "PUSS" (LOUISE ROSS SARANT) about 1936 or 1937 at Cornell University, Ithaca, New York, where Mrs. ROSS was formerly connected with the Hillel Foundation. RUTLEDGE stated that he subsequently met "PUSS" through Mrs. ROSS and has known the ROSS family socially since the above stated time.

Mr. RUTLEDGE said that he did not see the ROSS family between 1937 and 1945. RUTLEDGE advised that in 1945 he was employed by the Fair Employment Practices Committee (FEPC) at San Francisco, California. RUTLEDGE said that his first wife died in July, 1945 and he returned to New York in August, 1945, on a leave of absence from his position with FEPC and resided at 109 Seaman Avenue, New York City. After a period of several months, Mrs. ROSS and "PUSS", who were residing in Ithaca, New York, made a trip to New York City, contacted RUTLEDGE by telephone and visited briefly with him on a social basis. At this time, "PUSS" mentioned that she was either engaged or married. A short time later "PUSS" and her husband, "AL", also visited RUTLEDGE at 109 Seaman Avenue, Bronx, New York, for a couple of hours.

During the summer of 1949, after the death of his second wife, RUTLEDGE, for sentimental reasons, visited Ithaca, New York and again saw the ROSS family, including "PUSS" and AL SARANT, on two occasions.

RUTLEDGE stated that in 1954, which time he held his present position with the Public Housing Administration at New York City, he was considered a security risk under the Federal Security Program. RUTLEDGE said it was charged, among other things, that his name was contained in ALFRED SARANT's address book. RUTLEDGE advised that on July 12, 1954, he was suspended from his position as Racial Relations Officer and hearings were held concerning this matter at the United States Court House, Foley Square, New York City on October 20, 21, 22 and 26, 1954. RUTLEDGE stated that he was reinstated to his present position in December, 1954.

In regard to the above proceedings, and upon the advice of his attorneys, RUTLEDGE went to Ithaca, New York during September, 1954 and saw "PUSS" and Mr. and Mrs. ROSS. RUTLEDGE added that AL SARANT had disappeared in 1950 and his whereabouts was not known by him, "PUSS", or the ROSS family. On this occasion, RUTLEDGE obtained an affidavit from Mrs. ROSS setting forth his relationship with the ROSS and SARANT families, as above stated. RUTLEDGE repeated that he has only known the ROSS and SARANT families on a purely social basis and has no knowledge of any subversive activities on their part.

NY 65-15360

RUTLEDGE described ALFRED SARANT as a quiet and reticent individual. RUTLEDGE said that when he saw "PUSS" in September, 1954, "PUSS" told him that she joined the Communist Party in 1945. "PUSS" also mentioned to RUTLEDGE that she had been quite unhappy with AL and that she knew nothing of his past, that is, prior to their marriage. RUTLEDGE stated that he has not seen any members of the ROSS or SARANT families subsequent to September, 1954.

The Communist Party, U.S.A., has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

A. REFERENCE:

SAC Letter 55-30, dated April 12, 1955, Security Index Review.

B. SUCCINCT RESUME OF CASE:

Subject, when interviewed by Bureau Agents in 1950, stated that she was not then a member of the Communist Party (CP). She advised that she was a member of the Greenwich Village Branch of the CP (New York City) in 1944 and 1945.

Subject was interviewed in connection with the investigation of the JULIUS ROSENBERG espionage network in July, 1950. It is noted that JULIUS and ETHEL ROSENBERG were executed in July, 1953, for conspiracy to commit espionage against the United States. During the course of a permissive search conducted of subject's residence at that time, an address book was located containing the entry, "Rosenberg, Julius and Ethel, 10 Monroe Street, New York 2." Subject admitted having met the ROSENBERGS on one occasion in New York City. She denied any further acquaintance. She denied ever engaging in any espionage activities or being in any way connected with any activities of JULIUS ROSENBERG.

On March 22, 1951, New York [redacted] advised that JULIUS ROSENBERG told him that there is a woman in Ithaca, New York, named SARANT, who was an active Russian agent and whose husband is now in Europe. On July 10, 1951, this informant advised that ROSENBERG told him that he had made two trips to Ithaca to see ALFRED SARANT to make "pick ups" which the informant interpreted to mean that SARANT was furnishing espionage material to ROSENBERG. He stated that on one of these trips he stayed overnight at the SARANT residence and that "PUSS" SARANT was present during this period. In discussing ALFRED SARANT'S flight to Europe, ROSENBERG stated that SARANT left "PUSS" and their children in Ithaca. ROSENBERG commented that "PUSS" would not say anything against her husband which would harm him and that she does not know her husband's whereabouts.

Subject testified before a Federal Grand Jury in New York City in June, 1951. When questioned concerning her knowledge of or participation in espionage, she declined to answer on grounds that her answers might tend to incriminate her. Subject testified before the Mc Carthy Senate Investigations Sub-Committee both in executive session and public session in October and December, 1953. When questioned concerning espionage activity on the part of herself or her husband, her knowledge of JULIUS ROSENBERG and his espionage group, she refused to answer on grounds of self-incrimination. She said that as she understood the Fifth Amendment, it was for the protection of the innocent.

C. RECOMMENDATION:

Retain in Security Index. Subject has been depicted as an espionage agent, and it is believed that this characterizes her as a dangerous individual who could be expected to commit acts inimical to the national defense and public safety of the United States in time of emergency. In addition, she has refused to answer queries with reference to her knowledge of espionage at Congressional hearings and before a Federal Grand Jury, claiming that her answers might tend to incriminate her.

D. DETCOM TABBING:

Subject is presently tabbed for Detcom; however, no recommendation has been made pursuant to SAC Letter 55-12. It is believed that she should be tabbed under the new standards since her alleged espionage activities clearly and unmistakably depict her as a potential espionage agent.

INTERVIEW WITH WALTER JAMES WIGGINS

WALTER JAMES WIGGINS, <sup>ALBANY, N.Y.</sup> also known as WALLY WIGGINS, Attorney, 152 East State Street, was interviewed on June 7, 1955. He stated that he was associated with VICTOR K. D. ROSS, LOUISE SARANT's stepfather, in the practice of law from approximately 1949 to 1952 and that during this period he became acquainted with both ALFRED and LOUISE SARANT. WIGGINS advised that he, himself, was a Communist Party member in Ithaca during 1948 and 1949. He stated that he never knew either subject as a Communist Party member. He specifically recalled a conversation with ALFRED SARANT in about 1949 concerning an effort to get SARANT to do some work for the American Labor Party. When SARANT refused, WIGGINS called him a "parlor pink." This remark angered SARANT and he never was friendly to WIGGINS from then on.

The Communist Party, USA, has been cited by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

WIGGINS continued that he never had any reason to suspect either subject of espionage or subversive activity. He stated that when ALFRED SARANT went off with CAROL DAYTON he was certain that this was nothing more than an extra-marital affair because he was aware that the SARANT marriage was on the verge of breaking up.

WIGGINS stated that he is positive that neither VICTOR ROSS nor LOUISE SARANT has any idea of the present whereabouts of ALFRED SARANT and, further, that they have had no contact with him since he disappeared.

WIGGINS advised that he is still in close contact with ROSS and that he will immediately advise the Federal Bureau of Investigation if he ever receives any indication that ROSS is aware of ALFRED SARANT's whereabouts.
